7. ISSUE TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 7.1. A private company is required in terms of Section 8 (2)(b) of the Act to prohibit the offering of any of its securities to the public and to restrict the transferability of its securities in its memorandum of incorporation.
- 7.2. The Company does not offer any of its securities to the public, as the Company is contractually limited to offering its securities to the Developer. However, in the unlikely event that this situation should not prevail, the application of the restriction on public offers relating to securities in the Company's MoI is excluded by the application of sections 3(2) and 11 of the Share Blocks Act which provides that any person may offer shares in a share block company for sale to the public if, in lieu of compliance with any other requirements, such offer is accompanied by a statement that any proposed purchaser of such shares is required to enter into a contract of sale which meets the conditions set out in Section 17 of the Share Blocks Act.
- 7.3. The Company, therefore, elects in terms of Section 39(3) of the Act to negate the provision of section 39(2) of the Act, and specifically relies on Section 11 of the Share Blocks Act should the exceptional circumstance described in article 7.2 arise.
- 7.4. Every original Shareholder shall be entitled to one certified copy of a share certificate free of charge but for every subsequent certificate the Directors may levy such charge as from time to time they may think fit; provided that if a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on the payment of such fee, and such terms, if any, as to the evidence and indemnity as the Directors may think fit.
- 7.5. Every person whose name is thereafter entered in the register of Shareholders shall be entitled to one certified copy of a certificate for all the Shares attached to the share block and use rights registered in his name or to several certified certificates, each for a part of such Shares.
- 7.6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this MoI the Company shall, upon the issue or replacement of a share certificate to a Shareholder, retain possession of the Shareholder's original share certificate/s and shall hold the same in pledge as security for all and any amounts which may be or become owing by the Shareholder to the Company which Share shall remain so pledged.
- 7.7. No Share may be transferred except simultaneously with and to the same transferee as the whole of the other Shares included in the same share block together with the transfer, cession, and assignment of:
- 7.7.1. the relevant portion of the loan obligation allotted to the share block in question;
 - 7.7.2. the use and occupation agreement pertaining to the share block in question, and the assumption by the transferee of all the transferor's obligations thereunder.
- 7.8. Prior to the transfer of Shares to any transferee, the levies and any other amounts due and payable to the Company must be settled in full unless otherwise resolved by the Directors.
- 7.9. No Shares may be transferred to any transferee without the prior consent and approval of the Directors of the Company, for which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. This article shall not apply, however, to the transfer of any Shares by a Shareholder or his executors or administrators or other legal representatives to the spouse or any descendant or ascendant of such Shareholder. No such consent shall be necessary for the transfer of Shares held by the Share Block Developer in respect of further development rights.

- 7.10. The instrument of transfer of any Share of the Company not being a security in terms of Section 50 of the Act shall be executed by both the transferor and the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of this Share until the name of the transferee is entered into the register of Shareholders in respect thereof.
- 7.11. Subject to such of the restrictions as may be applicable, any Shareholder may transfer all or any of his Shares by an instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve.
- 7.12. The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:
- 7.12.1. the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certified copy of the certificate of the Shares in the event that the Company holds the original or where the Shareholder holds the original, then such original certificate to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transfer to make the transfer;
 - 7.12.2. the share transfer duty (if any) has been paid thereon.
- 7.13. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the transfer Office of the Company at which it is presented for registration, accompanied by a certificate of the Shares to be transferred. Every power of attorney given by the Shareholder authorising the transfer of Shares shall when lodged produced or exhibited to the Company or any of its proper offices be deemed, as between the Company and the donor of the power to continue and remain in full force and effect and the Company may allow that the power to be acted upon until such time as an express notice in writing of its revocation has been lodged at such of the Company's Offices as the power of attorney lodged, produced or exhibited as aforesaid. The Company shall not be bound to allow the exercise of any act or matter by an agent for a Shareholder unless a duly certified copy of the agent's authority is produced and lodged with the Company.
- 7.14. The executor of the estate of the deceased's sole holder of a Share shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivor or survivors, or the executors of the deceased's survivor shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share.
- 7.15. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of the Shareholder shall upon such evidence or insolvency of the Shareholder and shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors, have the right, either to be registered as a Shareholder in respect of the Share or instead of being registered himself to make such transfer of the Share as the deceased or insolvent could have made, but the Director shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have in the case of the transfer of a Share by the deceased or insolvent before death or insolvency.
- 7.16. The parent or guardian of a minor and the curator bonis of a Shareholder and any person becoming entitled to Shares in consequence of the death or insolvency of any Shareholder or the marriage of any female Shareholder or by any lawful means other than by the transfer in accordance with these articles, may, upon producing such evidence as sustains the character in which he proposes to act under these articles or of his title, as the Directors think sufficient, transfer those Shares to himself or to any other person subject to the articles as to transfer hereinbefore contained.

- 7.17. Any person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the advantages to which he would have been entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Shareholder in respect of the Share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by Shareholder in relation to the meeting of the Company.
- 7.18. A person who submits proof of his appointment as the executor, administrator, trustee, curator, or guardian in respect of the estate of the deceased of the Company or the estate of the deceased Shareholder of the Company or the estate of a Shareholder whose estate has been sequestrated, or who is otherwise under a disability or as the liquidator of any body corporate which is a Shareholder of the Company, shall be entered in the register of Shareholders of the Company Nomine officii, and shall thereafter, for all purposes, be deemed to be a Shareholder of the Company.

8. ALTERATION OF SHARES

- 8.1. If at any time the Shares are divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class) may be varied with the consent in writing of the holder of three-quarters of the issued Shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate Shareholders meeting of the holders of the Shares of the class. But so that unless the class consists of one Shareholder only, the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy three-quarters of all the issued shares of the class. This article does not curtail the power of the Company to vary the rights attached to any Share which has not been issued subject to the provisions of article 6 above.
- 8.2. The Company may alter the shares by reducing or consolidating its number of shares.

9. LIEN AND PLEDGE ON SHARES AND SHAREHOLDERS' INTEREST

- 9.1. The Company has a first and paramount lien and a pledge on every Share for the amounts due to it by the holder of such Share whether payment has become due or not. The amounts so due to the Company shall include the costs of any acts performed or proceedings instituted by the Company in its efforts to recover such amounts.
- 9.2. The Company shall not be obliged to recognise the pledge by a Shareholder of any Share in the Company to a third party but as soon as an amount becomes due and payable by a Shareholder to the Company, all Shares held by such Shareholder shall from that moment become pledged by such Shareholder to the Company.
- 9.3. In the event of such Shareholder holding the original Share certificate then in such event, the Shareholder shall hold the certificate relating to the pledged Share as agent for the Company. A Share shall remain so pledged until the amount due has been settled or the Share has been realised as provided in article 9.4.

- 9.4.3. the sale shall be by way of a tender process or in such other duly publicised manner as in the bona fide opinion of Directors would realise a more favourable price in the circumstances.
- 9.5. The net return of any such sale shall be applied in respect of the amount due to the Company and the Shareholder shall remain liable for any shortfall.
- 9.6. In the event of an over-recovery, the credit balance, if any, shall be due to the Shareholder upon demand.
- 9.7. On any sale, as aforementioned the Directors may enter the name of the purchaser in the register of shareholders of the Company and the purchaser shall have no responsibility to attend to the application of the purchase price.
- 9.8. Except as herein further provided, an affidavit by a director or the secretary of the Company that the Share has been duly sold in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sub-articles shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons laying claim to such Shares or the proceeds thereof, and such affidavit and the receipt by the Company of the purchase price of Shares shall be conclusive proof of the rights to such Shares and the transfer is thereafter perfecta.

- 10.2. The Directors shall have the power to convene other Shareholders Meetings of the Company at such time and place as the Directors determine.
